ELEVEN MEN PASS THE NO REPORT RECEIVED EXAMINATION FOR FITNESS

"The finest bunch of boys examined yet," was the way Dr. G. W. Baker described the group of Weber county draft registrants who came this morning to the county offices for examination. There were twelve examined and eleven passed. The reject was turned down because he was underweight. One case only was deferred to the advisory board.

Those who were accepted were Edward J. Curto, Guy Lewis Rhead, Douglas Hooper, John Hyrum Kruitbosch, Benjamin Bitton, Leslie Pratt, William, Orson Elias Asper, George Weatherston, James C. Stimpson and Edward T. Hyslop. Phillip J. Dix was referred to the advisory board for judgment on his eyesight. William George Hall was underweight.

Olson Elias Asper was the biggest man in the lot. He measures 6 feet 5 inches in height and weighs 191 pounds. "A few soldiers like that would scare the best regiment of goose-steppers the Kaiser could command," said one of the board members.

Journeymen Barbers' International Union has assigned five representatives to assist its local in unionizing New Orleans, La.

ON CHICKEN FOOD ANALYSIS

George Shorten, of the city sanitary department, stated this morning that he had received no report from the state chemist relative to the analysis of the sample of food which caused the death of a large number of chickens at the home of Mrs. W. E. Birmingham in Wilson's lane. The chickens became ill immediately after they were fed a quantity of Pratt's chicken food. Mr. Shorten expects a report from the state chemist tonight or early next week.

CHAS. W. PENROSE TO BE THE SPEAKER

President Charles W. Penrose will be the speaker tomorrow afternoon at the monthly priesthood meeting of the North Weber stake to be held in the Third ward. All members of the stake holding the priesthood are urged to attend. The monthly union meeting of the stake Sunday schools will be held at the same hour, 2:30 p. m., in the Weber academy.

ELKO SERENADED BY S. P. BAND EN ROUTE TO CARLIN

Members of the Southern Pacific brass band—thirty-six strong—and about one hundred associate Southern Pacific shopmen left this morning in special Pullman cars attached to train No. 17 for Carlin, Nev. They will participate in a big flag-raising ceremony at the Southern Pacific shops in that city this afternoon.

On special request of the citizens of Elko, the band boys stopped in that city long enough this morning to give the assembled multitude an impromptu concert. Several score residents joined the Ogden party at Elko and also are attending the flag-raising celebration at Carlin.

Another feature of the celebration will be an address by Governor Boyle and a band benefit dance at the Eagle hall tonight.

HENRY H. BLOOD IS TO SPEAK IN THE FIFTH WARD

One of the most attractive programs of several given the past few months has been announced for Sunday evening at the Fifth ward meeting house.

Henry H. Blood, president of the North Davis stake, will give a lecture. President Blood's address will be the feature number of the program. He is a member of the state utility board and also of the general priesthood committee.

Other numbers on the program will include a piano solo by Prof. Clifford Kay. This will be followed by sacramental music by Henry Volter. Master Paul Wheeler, student of Miss Lillian Thatcher, will give a violin solo. This number will be followed by President Blood's lecture, after which Nephri Brown will give a solo.

The meeting is being held under the direction of the elders' quorum.

W. B. WILLIAMS GOES TO U. SERVICE IN WASHINGTON

W. B. Williams, for the past twelve years connected with the Union Pacific system, has resigned as traveling accountant for the Oregon Short Line and has accepted a position as auditor in the Bureau of Internal Revenue at Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Williams, who has been connected with the local forestry service for the past seven years, has also resigned and will accompany her husband to his new post.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams will leave for Washington the latter part of next week.

ANSWER MADE IN A DAMAGE SUIT

In the damage suit of John T. Newton and Anna M. Newton against William C. Wright, Mr. Wright today filed an answer to the amended complaint of the plaintiffs in which he states that the injuries and death of Benjamin H. Newton was "caused by the acts of the deceased which contributed to and was the proximate cause of his injury and death." Benjamin H. Newton died from injuries received July 27, 1917 when his motorcycle and the defendant's automobile came together on Jefferson and Twenty-sixth street.

In the answer, the defendant alleges that Newton was riding his machine up the Twenty-sixth street hill at a speed of 40 miles an hour or thereabouts and that weeds on the corner somewhat obstructed the view. A sign giving warning that the corner was a dangerous spot should have been heeded by the motorcyclist, the defendant states. The defendant denies responsibility for the tragedy and moves the court to dismiss the action.

LIQUOR CASES IN MUNICIPAL COURT

J. W. Alman, a walking distillery and who might well have been the envy of Peoria, was taken into custody yesterday by Deputy Sheriffs Brown and Soule. When searched two quarts of whiskey, one quart of wine, and one quart of brandy were discovered.

Alman, a Spaniard and Idaho sheepherder, claimed that he had purchased the intoxicants at Elko for his own use. He was arraigned in municipal court this morning and fined $50 or 30 days in jail. The sentence was assessed to hold him for Nevada officers, from whom Sheriff Peterson received a telegram last night, stating he was wanted there for a felony.

Irvin Austin, driving car waiter, pleaded guilty to having liquor in his possession, in police court this morning, and was fined $100 or 60 days in jail.

Albert L. Simmons was given a suspended sentence for vagrancy and ordered to leave town to obtain employment.

Henry Potter, "John Doe" and John Williams, all charged with violating the liquor laws, forfeited bonds in the sum of $50 each.

SIXTEEN BELOW ZERO AT THE CITY WELLS THIS MORNING

If the thermometer of Supt. Fred Packard of the water department is reliable, the temperature at the city wells, immediately east of Ogden canyon, was 16 degrees below zero this morning. At that point, the atmosphere was as frigid this morning as at any time during the entire winter.

The thermometer at the city hall, under the supervision of George Shorten of the sanitary department, registered 12 degrees above zero.

MISUNDERSTANDING LEADS TO TROUBLE

A misunderstanding between W. T. Horn and M. Baker regarding the little note, placed on the water channel on the Baker property, and published in the papers February 14, was taken by Mr. Horn as a threat. The said note was written in a facetious style and was intended by Mr. Baker to inform Mr. Horn that he had better change his mind and let the water alone, which Mr. M. Baker is officially authorized to handle. Mr. Baker's boy placed the said note at the headgate and Mr. Horn struck the boy, believing the contents of the note to be a threat and an insult. This is the version of the incident as turned in by Mr. Baker.

THIRD HOLLANDER SPECIAL TO ARRIVE

The second section of the "Hollander Special," carrying a party of 500 Hollanders from New York to San Francisco, passed through Ogden at 8:30 last night. The third and final section is due to arrive here tonight.

The "Hollander Special" was divided into three sections of seven Pullmans and a baggage car each. The party is composed of Netherlands government officials and merchants en route to the island of Java.

SON OF JOHN AUSTIN IS CALLED HIGHER IN U. S. SERVICE

Another Ogden man to gain recognition for efficient service is George Austin, son of John Austin, 141 Thirtieth street, who has been called to Washington, D. C., to serve with Col. D. C. Jackling and other experts there now in railroad work. Mr. Austin will be in the traffic department.

The Ogden man is 32 years of age, was born here and received most of his railroad training here. For a number of years he had been train dispatcher at Salt Lake for the Denver & Rio Grande railroad. He was sent in government service a short time ago to California and was to have made a tour up through the northwest. He was recalled by telegram, however, and ordered to report to Washington immediately. He had served for about three months on the fuel distribution board of the state.

Notice Knights of Pythias

Next Monday evening will be annual roll call and patriotic service work in the second.

C. G. WORTHINGTON IS WANTED IN NEVADA

C. G. Worthington is in custody again this time at the request of Sheriff C. J. Harris of Elko, Nev., where he is alleged to have negotiated an illegal transaction while selling books. It is thought the charge is a similar one from which he was freed yesterday in Salt Lake in the federal court by United States Commissioner Henry V. Van Pelt.

County Attorney Charles Farr talked with Sheriff Harris this morning over the long-distance telephone but could learn no particulars about the case, except that Worthington was wanted.

It Is Possible

to live economically at this time of high prices if you use care, pay cash and do your own delivering. Credit stores and free delivery mean big expense and high prices. If you wish to economize and save on what you buy avoid the store that offers to give you something free. Your past experiences no doubt has taught you that you always pay in the end for that which is offered by the merchant as free. In no case is this more true than in the delivering of groceries.

Do Your Own Delivering

Uncle Sam says you should save by carrying your groceries home. You could not expect to do this when buying from a credit store, or from those who offer free delivery, furnish solicitors, have fine expensive stores and, etc. Our plan is the only one possible to keep the costs down.
